Accidents and Emergencies Keep Rescue Squad Busy

Lake Villa Woman Taken to Hospital; Motorists Are Aided

Franklin W. Harp, 22, aviation machinist's mate, third class, home on furlough from Pensacola, Fla., was taken to Great Lakes Naval hospital Wednesday afternoon by the Antioch rescue squad for treatment for injuries sustained in a motor-cycle accident near his home two miles north of Brass Ball Corners, Wis.

Harp was brought to the office of Dr. A. P. Bratude in Antioch for emergency treatment before being transported to Great Lakes in the rescue squad ambulance.

His left foot was severely injured and he suffered lacerations and bruises of the left side and face.

Harp had been home for about two days of a 15-day furlough when the accident occurred.

The Antioch rescue squad was called to Lake Villa Monday morning at 2:45 o'clock to take Mrs. Kate C. Holman to the Lake County General hospital for treatment for hemorrhage.

Cars Collide

A collision at Deep Lake road between a car driven east on highway 173 by Herbert E. Lewis, 41, of 6430 North Franklin Avenue, Chicago, and one in which Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Joseph Seignemartin of No. 1862-A Warren Avenue, Milwaukee, were riding, brought a call to the squad Sunday morning at 8:45 o'clock.

Lewis, who was charged by Seignemartin with drunken driving, was taken to St. Therese hospital for chest injuries. The Seignemartins, who were on their way to Lake Villa, were able to continue their journey in the automobile of a friend who came to the scene of the accident to get them.

Both automobiles were badly damaged and were brought to Antioch for repairs.

Crushed by Car

On Friday afternoon members of the squad were called to the home of Henry Mueller, 72, of Pikeville, who was killed when his automobile slipped from a jack and he was caught and pinned to the ground by the rear spring.

Mueller was removed from beneath the car by the squad, but had apparently been dead for two or three hours before he was found, according to the opinion of physicians. The body was discovered by Policeman George Heckinger and Charles Quiggle, both of Wanigan, who were well acquainted with Mueller, and were passing close to the garage on their way to Deer lake to go fishing.

Mueller had evidently been working on the rear wheel and muffler of the car when the tragedy occurred.

Two years ago the squad was called to the home when Mrs. Mueller, was ill with appendicitis, and took her to a hospital in Wanigan, where she underwent an emergency operation.

Firemen Realize Spring's Here; Grass Fires Start

The grass-and-bonfire season started for the Antioch fire department this past week.

Friday noon the firemen were called upon to extinguish a bonfire which got out of control on the grounds back of a building owned by Mrs. Mollie Somerville in the business section of the village.

Saturday afternoon around 2 o'clock the firemen were called to the B. R. Burke home on Tiffany road west of Antioch, where a bonfire spread to dry grass and burned down a storage shed.

"HEAT IS ON" IN EIGHTH DISTRICT ASSEMBLY DERBY

"Plumping" 3 for 1 May Up-set Political Dopester's "Dope"

Developing into one of the most interesting races of the primary campaign is the Eighth District legislative derby in which six entrants are seeking the two Republican nominations and three Democrats are contending for the single Democratic nomination. The battle is intensified because nomination for the office means election. The G. O. P. names two candidates and the Democrats one, and the three are to be elected in November, the balloting at that time being merely a matter of form.

Said to be carrying the endorsement of many prominent Lake county Republican leaders and state pay-rollers, as well as the blessing of Governor Dwight H. Green, Representatives Nick Keller and Harold D. Kelsey, incumbents, are entering the final days of the campaign with optimism but without the overconfidence that has proved to be the undoing of many an aspirant for elective office.

Formidable Opposition

Both G. Russell Allen, McHenry county lawyer, and William J. Smith, former Wanigan publisher, constitute real threats to the incumbents, according to information reaching advisers of the assemblymen.

Smith's large personal following is bound to prove a major factor in the race. He is well and favorably known for his integrity and honesty and he is endowed with unusual ability that would prove valuable to his district and to the people of the entire state if he is sent to Springfield.

Allen's friends are stressing that McHenry county needs him in order to have that county properly represented in the general assembly. Lake county leaders counter that claim with the assertion that McHenry county has had Rep. Tom Bolger in the legislature for the past 2 years. Bolger is a Democrat, but even some of his Republican opponents admit that he is an able legislator. Lake county Republicans also cite population figures involved in the matter of equitable representation at Springfield. Lake county has 121,000 population; McHenry county 37,000, and Boone 15,000. They concede the re-election of Rep. Bolger, and if Allen, too, is successful, then McHenry county would have two of the 8th district's three representatives to serve the special interests of its 37,000 residents, whereas Lake county with its 121,000 would have but one.

McHenry County Backs Allen

McHenry county Republicans are insisting that they must have a Republican in the general assembly and are asking for three votes for Allen. The cumulative system of voting, permitting a voter to give three votes to one candidate, sometimes referred to as "plumping," may make Allen a winner for one of the G. O. P. assembly seats.

Meanwhile, Reps. Keller and Kelsey who have earned executive approval by "going along" with Gov. Green's program, are waging intense campaigns, and are counting upon the support that has not failed them in past elections to turn the balance in their favor in the present campaign.

In the Democratic camp Rep. Bolger seems to have the edge over his two opponents—Walter Koziol of North Chicago, who has Democratic organization support in Lake county and Charles P. Hayes of Harvard, who is said to have sought office in former years under the Republican banner.

Neither J. C. Pierce, Woodstock supervisor offices with 483 and 442 votes respectively. Alfred Schmidt who was without opposition for town clerk, received 532 votes.

All factors considered, it is believed there is only an outside chance that there will be any shake-up in the present personnel of assemblymen from the eighth district.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hughes are the parents of a daughter born at St. Therese hospital on Easter Sunday.

Local Tax Rate Is Down 21 Cents

Antioch High School Takes Biggest Cut—24¢; Library up 3¢

Tax payers of Antioch this year will find their tax rate has been reduced 21 cents per one hundred dollars valuation, according to tax statements being mailed to property owners by Town Tax collector John Horan.

Horan is making out the statements numbering about 10,000 for the township from four large tax books he received on April 1. A large percentage of the statements will go to Chicago people and other non-residents who own real estate in the township around the lakes.

Last year the total for Antioch for the various taxing bodies was indicated to be $6,23, and the total for this year is only $6,02. The 21 cent decrease is accounted for by a few changes made in the rates, the Antioch High school district No. 117, taking a cut of 24 cents over the preceding year, and the village rate was also dropped one cent. Against these cuts in rates there were two increases—the county added 1 cent, and the township library added 3 cents. The net difference in the totals is 21 cents in favor of the taxpayer.

Antioch Banks Are Depositories

Tax collector Horan announces that he has arranged for the same hours of collection at Antioch banks as of last year, and that he will receive tax payments at the State Bank of Antioch on Monday and Tuesday from 9 to 4 p.m., and Wednesday from 9 until 12 noon, and at the First National Bank from 9 to 3 on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Collections will start when mailing of tax statements has been completed. Mrs. Horan has been made an authorized deputy for the period of tax collections.

Town of Salem Gives $2,000 To Fire Departments

Outright gifts of $1,000 each were voted to the fire departments of Wilmette and Salem by citizens of Salem township Tuesday at the annual town meeting. While there were no restrictions on the manner of spending the funds, it was announced that the generous gifts will be used for the purchase of additional equipment and maintenance and repair of present equipment.

The donations were made from the general fund of the township, which on April 1, was indicated to be $1,866.21, according to the treasurer's report. Finances of the town are in sound condition and there still remains a substantial cash balance after deducting the $2,000 donation to the fire departments.

Hartnell Re-elected

At the balloting held the same day Arthur Hartnell, veteran chairman of supervisors, retained his post without opposition on the ticket, receiving 456 votes. About 50 voters wrote in the name of Arthur Bushing who was not a candidate.

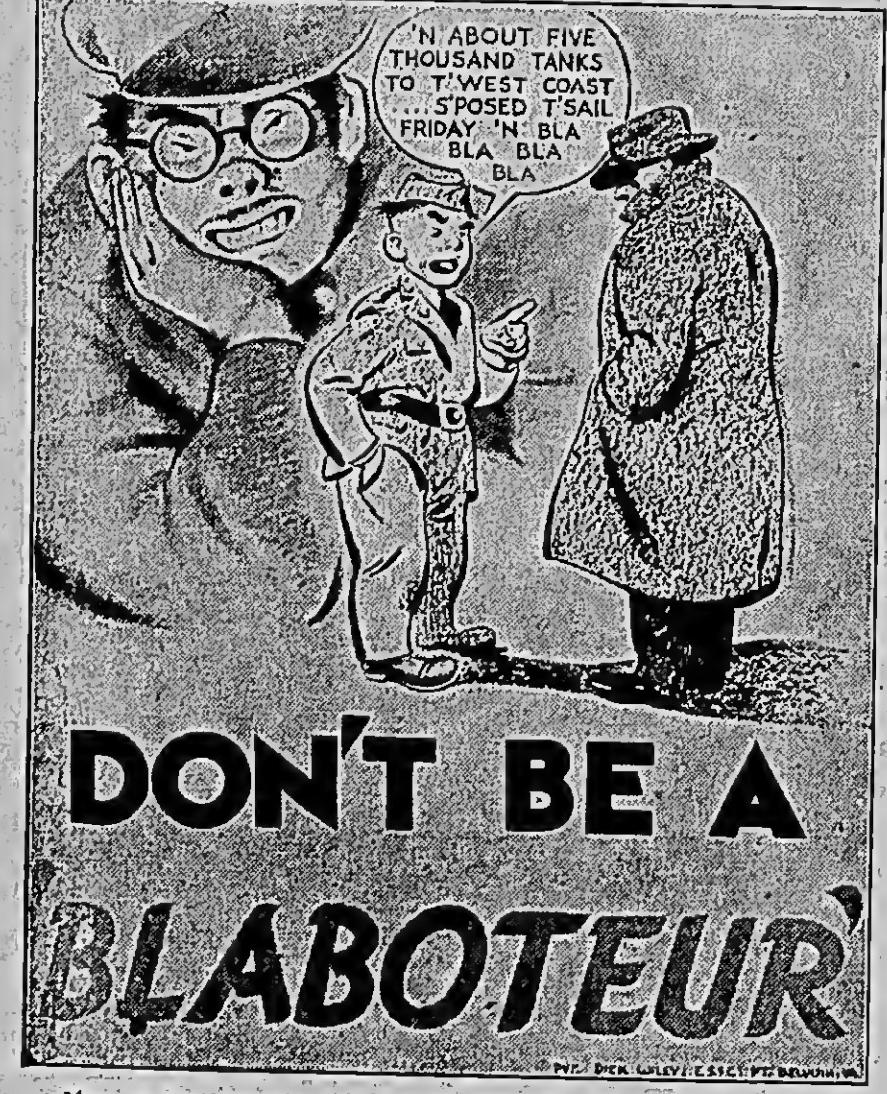

Wm. Cook and Jos. Greenwald won the supervisor offices with 483 and 442 votes respectively. Alfred Schmidt who was without opposition for town clerk, received 532 votes.

A real battle was on for town treasurer between Joe Fox, incumbent, and C. V. Cook who received 305 votes to Fox's 308. For the town assessor Job Arthur Bloss defeated Fred Meyer 326 to 292. Elmer Barthel, lone candidate for justice of the peace, was elected by 462 votes.

Three constables were elected—George Higgins, Elwyn Manning and Homer Payne, as were also three assessors—Wm. Barthel, Henry Lubens and Matt Reiter.

COUNTY CANDIDATES

STEP UP TEMPO AS CAMPAIGN CLOSES

Judge Persons and Probate Clerk Nelson Believed "on Way out"

As the campaign for county office nomination comes into the home stretch, the unopposed Democratic slate and Lake county citizens generally are viewing some pretty ugly parts among the Republican contenders.

Judge Perry L. Persons who heads the county ticket for the county judge nomination is being given the battle of his life by Paul D. Doolen and Herman C. Litchfield with both showing surprising vote-getting strength in various parts of the county, while a strong hold for Persons has yet to be found. The News has not heard a single voter voice approval of a ninth term for the veteran jurist who has held office for 32 years and who could retire on a pension of $3,000 a year to be paid out of state funds, for the remainder of his life. Many political observers who have watched the race with interest predict that Judge Persons will be the low man in the three-way race.

What is predicted to be a close race is that between Probate Judge Martin C. Decker and former state attorney Charles E. Mason.

In his campaign for re-nomination Judge Decker has the support of many prominent attorneys who make the statement that the judge has exhibited a fine judicial temperament in his work on the bench; that he has been kind, courteous and fair in the handling of any county in the state outside of Cook county. No change of venue has been taken from his court within the past ten years.

Mason Opposes Decker

Mason, in his effort to unseat the veteran jurist, makes mention of "personal politics" as connected with the probate judgeship, and cites the cold cash that accrues directly and indirectly from the office. The judge receives $6,000 a year, says Mason's statement, for which he holds court twice a week, whereas the law provides that the court "shall be always open." Decker, Mason says, is senior member of the law firm of Decker, Brazell and Decker. Wilbur D. Brazell, member of the firm, is an associate state's attorney and is paid a salary of $4,800 a year, and he has practiced in the court, of which his associate is judge, which, says Mr. Mason, is contrary to all professional ethics.

Bernard M. Decker, son of the judge and junior member of the firm, has been from time to time clerk to one of the Appellate judges. The secretary to Judge Decker and stenographer in the office of Decker, Brazell and Decker, is paid $1,500 a year by the county of Lake under the guise of being minute clerk in the Probate court. However, most of her time is spent in the office of the law firm. When totaled up, this is a staggering amount of public funds to be paid into the coffers of one law firm.

Mason speaks Mr. Mason regarding his opponent, and he also states that Judge Decker is now eligible for an annual pension for life of $3,000 to be

Circuit Judge Vacancy to be Filled April 14

Dusher Is G. O. P. Candidate, Collins Democratic Nominee

Carried on a separate ballot, for election rather than for nomination, at the primaries April 14 will be the names of the candidates in the race for the circuit judgeship to fill the vacancy created by the death of Circuit Judge Thomas E. Gill of Rockford. Three years of Gill's six-year term remain to be served.

Attorney William R. Dusher of Rockford is the Republican candidate and Attorney Lester F. Collins has been nominated by the Democratic party.

Both Ex-Service Men

Dusher, 51, has practiced law in Rockford since 1924. He entered the practice of law in Rochelle, Ill., after the First World War, in which he served as a lieutenant in the air pursuit corps. He was a member of the first officers' training corps at Fort Sheridan in 1917.

Dusher is said to have personally tried more than 200 jury cases, both civil and criminal, and to have appeared in 125 cases before the appellate and supreme courts. He has been called upon on a number of occasions to negotiate contracts between labor and industry, and is reported to have been commended by all parties to these contracts for his fairness.

Collins, who is 42, was born in Rockford. He left high school to enlist in the U. S. navy during the first World War and at its close returned to complete his high school course. He attended Blackburn college, the University of Illinois law school and John Marshall law school. He was admitted to the bar in 1931.

He has practiced law in Waukegan since that time, being active in the interests of labor unions.

He is a Democratic precinct committeeman.

New Slogan

"You can't improve on perfection," people used to say.

But now that slogan itself has been improved on. Progress has hit it, too, and today's byword is, "You can always do better."

At least, according to the news reports, that's what they're saying in war factories all over the country; it's one of the reasons for the rapid rise in output of the weapons we need so badly. Mass production of modern war materials requires a great deal of ingenuity and the development of many new techniques. Their development isn't easy, but, just the same, they are being perfected now, just as they have always been in peacetime.

You remember the early days of radio, when almost every man who liked to tinker with machines built a homemade set. A lot of them were improvised out of odds and ends—stray bits of wire, a few pieces of crystal, a couple of tubes, and a speaker made out of an old strip of metal. By today's standards they weren't the best—but they worked. And a lot of experiments carried out while they were built led to the perfection of the fine receivers we have today.

In this present emergency people are using makeshift equipment once again—this time to turn out weapons. The same ingenuity and imagination that developed automobiles, radios, and all our other world-changing inventions, are being turned now to war work. In our modern war factories production experts and workers are forever tinkering with old tools and making them do new jobs when new tools are not to be had. Makeshift operations of this kind enabled one automobile factory to produce guns almost five months ahead of schedule. Other companies have reported similar speed-ups. All along the line war work is going faster because Americans refuse to be stopped. With Yankee ingenuity and determination, they can always do better—and they're doing it now. *

Americans for America

"The fantastic schedules outlined by the President and Donald Nelson for American production will be met by American industry. The War Production Drive now under way, in which labor and management have joined hands, will deliver the goods to our men in the field, our boys rattling in tanks, and our sailors buffeted by the high seas."

Thus William P. Witherow, President of the National Association of Manufacturers, in a recent speech voiced the determination of industry to get behind Mr. Nelson 100 per cent in his war production efforts.

"Americans must awake," Mr. Witherow warned. "American industry must remove its constant effort for further control and advantage."

"American citizens must sacrifice till it hurts and not complain at rationing, nor interfere with normal life."

"America is at war—it is not a debate, or bazaar, or pink tea."

"America is in deadly peril."

"Cannot we all say: 'No more quarrels—no more misunderstanding; all one body' we off to victory?"

"Let us face the facts. Put first things first. Remove the menace. Win the war and then the peace."

THE MISSION OF THE SEVENTY

LESSON TEXT—Luke 10:1-7, 17, 21-24.
GOLDEN TEXT—The harvest truly is great; but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest;—Luke 10:2.

Working with Christ for the salvation of men has been the privilege of believers since the time He chose the twelve. We learn today that there were at least seventy more whom He considered dependable and worthy to be sent forth. Knowing how brief was the time before His death, the Saviour called, commissioned, and cared for them as they went two by two, personally to evangelize "in every city and place."

I. Sent to Serve Christ (vv. 1-3).

Prayer is back of the calling of laborers for Christ. God waits for His people to lay before Him the need, and to enlist His grace in moving upon the ones who can best serve Him. There is mystery here which we cannot fully understand, but it is perfectly clear that prayer is the power which has been given to the church with which to "move" the hand of God. The reason the laborers are so few, even in our days, is evidently, then, because there has been so little prayer.

Observe that the Lord sent His servants "two by two" so that they could encourage and assist each other. Christian work is best done in Christian fellowship. The "star performer" or the "lone wolf" may be acceptable in business or social life, but he has no place in Christ's program, unless by His special call and guidance for some particular task, such as pioneer work.

He sent them to go "before His face"—what a glorious place to be! That means that He was watching over them, expecting them really to "labor" for Him. But notice also that in loving thoughtfulness they were—

II. Sustained by Christ (vv. 4-7).
It is well when workers go out that they have proper backing. We speak of the "board" which is behind our missionaries. That is right and proper, but above all there must be the assurance of the provision and protection of Christ.

They were not to be concerned about money. Christ had already moved upon the hearts of His people to see that the laborer had "his hire"—which was food and shelter (v. 7).

Time is what life is made of, and the servants of Christ were not to waste it in lengthy oriental salutations (v. 4), or going from house to house to be entertained; thus losing much time and strength.

Nor was he to strive or become angry if some one did not receive him and his greeting of "peace" (v. 6). In any case his word would return in blessing upon himself (v. 6), and he could go on to another house. The point of all this is that the expectation of the Christian servant is from his Master, Christ, whose business requires diligence and haste (I Sam. 21:8b).

The outcome of such service is revealed in our third point:

III. Successful Through Christ (vv. 17, 21-24).

The seventy returned rejoicing that even the demons were subject to them in Jesus' name. He still has power over the demons of our day. Would that the church wielded that power more effectively!

While it is a great thing thus to see the power of God at work, Jesus told them in verse 20 that an even greater thing is to have one's name written in heaven. That means that we ought to be much concerned not only about having our own names written there, but the names of all those whose lives we touch—at home, at work, anywhere.

The secret of the disciples' victory is found in the statements which Christ in all humility and honesty made about Himself (vv. 22-24). He is the one to whom "all things are delivered"—unlimited in authority and power. The mystery of His person and work is not something man can think out or fully comprehend (how foolish have been the attempts to do it!) for He is God. The fact that the Father had revealed these things to the seventy humble, ordinary men caused Christ to magnify His Father's name in praise and prayer. Spiritual insight (vv. 21, 24) is something only God can give, and often He can give it in full measure only to humble and lowly men. "Men like D. L. Moody, who became spiritual giants, were usually humble men, from lowly walks who gave themselves wholly to God" (B. L. Olmstead).

Need to Slow Up

The world is going too fast! Even the Church needs to slow up for it is attempting too much in social programs and is losing spiritual poise in many places. Paul said to the Church, "Put on the whole armor of God." The whole armor takes time to put on, yet it is dangerous to leave off any part of it.—Rev. A. E. Gregory.

LAKE VILLA

Mrs. Holman, who has been very ill for some time at her home on Oak Knoll drive, was taken to Lake Co. General hospital last week, and is still very ill.

The fire department was called out last Saturday afternoon when grass fires of unknown origin threatened nearby cottages near Cedar Crest golf course, and the high wind made them spread very rapidly.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet on Wednesday, April 15, with Mrs. Anna Nader at her home, and everyone interested is invited. The Society has set Thursday, May 7, as the date for the annual mother-daughter banquet at the church, so please mark your calendar for a date you do not want to miss up for the work.

Harry Nickerson was called to Gary, Ind., last week by the illness and death of his sister there. His daughter and son, Mrs. Helen Hansen of Grayslake and Russell Nickerson accompanied him.

Cedar Lake 4-H club met last Thursday, April 2, with Louise Meinersmann at her home and elected the following officers: president, Louise Meinersmann; vice-president, Dorothy Gebhardt; secretary-treasurer, Colleen Ireland; program chairman, Ruth Schonchek; club reporter, Mary Ann Paulsen; transportation chairman, Idal Maier. The girls made plans for refreshments which they are to serve at a Hobby show to be given at Cedar Lake school on April 13. Mrs. Roy Crichton, leader, gave a short lesson on "Nutrition and Protective Foods," and the meeting closed with refreshments served by the hostess.

The Royal Neighbor meeting at the hall last Tuesday evening was well attended and Mrs. Finnegan told of the blood donor division of the Red Cross. The blood is used for dried blood plasma, so necessary in saving lives in the war, and many expressed a willingness to donate blood when the Red Cross Mobile unit comes to Waukegan. A collection of $21.75 was taken up for the work.

Unless You As A Voter

APPROVE the ATROCIOUS task imposed on voters of rural and small town voters by the last legislature in what is termed "the permanent Registration act" AND WHICH

ALL THREE REPRESENTATIVES of this, the Eighth District (Keller, Bolger and Kelsey) helped, by their VOTES to become the law of Illinois—THEY voted FOR this bill which is an insult to every voter, every election official in rural Illinois.

The difficulty a voter will encounter getting his ballot will result in this: It will cause many voters to say on election day: "Oh, shucks, I'm not going to vote—it is TOO MUCH TROUBLE; In the first place I've got to take time to file all those facts about myself and my family; then when I DO go to the ballot box, I'll have to again be checked by the man who brings out my registration card before handing me my ballot, and the name of my mother and the name of the family (if any) (perhaps); then makes me sign my name on a piece of paper to see if I'm honest for he then compares my signature with what I previously placed on my registration card; If it is readily apparent that the signatures are the same, he marks my ballot. But if on that day he is approaching the voting place, I've had something to upset me and my hand isn't steady when I try to prove my signature, he may refuse me a ballot, because he says the signatures are not alike. After all, my ballot and my vote makes only two and casting my ballot is an insult to every voter, every election official in rural Illinois.

SO, IF NUMBER of rural residents like a similar bill, the added expense is NOT justified for it does not produce MORE intense interest in voting the bill, but Instead, DISCOURAGES VOTERS because of the complexity of procedure in getting hold of and casting that ballot.

From the most reliable information I have been able to obtain, it is conservatively estimated that the initial cost of installing this new registration system in LAKE County, will run between FIFTY THOUSAND SIXTY THOUSAND DOLLARS and the annual cost in the vicinity of FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS and then after installation of the system will cost from $1,000 to $2,000 more per year than now to operate it in EACH of the three counties.

Conservative estimates of men in position to know figure that under this atrocious act, it will take about TEN MINUTES for every voter to get his ballot ready for the tax, questioning, checking and what-not being an expense to the average person will look into voting under THIS TAX, rather than PERSONAL PRIVILEGE as it now is.

Why should Lake County, where there's never been a Hitler, nothing but stealing, nothing but subjected to an INITIAL EXPENSE OF 50,000 and followed by increased annual expense of about $1,000 over what it now is? JUST WHAT GOOD would be obtained? WHAT IS THE RECOMPENSE to taxpayers for such an added expense? The answer is: NOTHING, ABSOLUTELY NOTHING!

YOUR SITTING LEGISLATORS voted for that bill (and THEY DID VOTE FOR IT as the record shows), WHAT WERE THEY THINKING ABOUT? What would they do if those hoodlum-puffballs from Chicago get around with their atrocious act which INSULTS EVERY VOTER, EVERY JUDGE AND CLERK in every precinct of Illinois outside Cook county.

MR. SMITH, candidate for the legislature from this district, has had enough experience to be able to read AND understand pending bills—it's a shock he'd never have supported a bill of such dubious features as this bill. A vote for Bill Smith, former publisher of the Waukegan Daily Sun for 25 years is a vote for HONESTY, EFFICIENCY, COURAGEOUS ACTION and dependability.

He's in favor of HONESTY, HONESTY and wants this insidious effort to take away from the townships all local control of finances and put them in the hands of those who know little and care nothing about the pro and cons of LOCAL CONDITIONS. WE MUST FIGHT this effort to CENTRALIZE operations of the state government to the point where the folks who pay the taxes have no chance to defend just claims which if presented among those who KNOW them, WOULD OBTAIN consideration.

Send a man to Springfield who is able to combat those increasing influences which, if allowed to go unchecked, will before many decades pass, make us all feel that all's left for us to do is throw up our hands and ask: Where's our free and fair America?

I hope you'll all read the above—it portrays how I feel in at least two matters of vital concern to all voters.

COUNTY JUDGE

PRIMARIES, TUESDAY, APRIL 14, 1942

Among many matters over which County Court has jurisdiction, juvenile delinquencies are of major importance. In the consideration of cases involving juvenile offenders, the following program is submitted as approved practice in other Counties, and should be adopted in our County Court:

Use of the facilities provided by the Department of Public Welfare, State of Illinois.

Establishment of case histories and case studies of each case prior to adjudication of the subject matter involved.

Your Support Will Be Appreciated

Herman C. Litchfield - Attorney at Law - Waukegan

Use of facilities of local agencies such as are afforded by the Big Brothers and Big Sisters in the solution of child problems, and the assistance of other similar agencies in appropriate cases for supervision and guidance of juvenile offenders, rather than commitments to institutions penal in character. Solution of youth problems without Court proceedings whenever possible, so that Court records may not operate as a stigma on the character of the child upon reaching maturity.

Lake County Favors Brooks for Senate, Paddock for House

Support for Illinois favorite sons who are candidates in the forthcoming primary election next Tuesday began to take on visible form this week with the announcement that Lake county central committees, both Democratic and Republican, had placed their stamps of approval on certain of the candidates who seek nomination. The recommendations made by the Republicans are mainly for national, state and district candidates, as the committee has maintained a "hands-off" policy in the local campaign. The Democrats, however, went right down the line from top to bottom, indicating the central committee's favorites at the polls next Tuesday. It must be noted there are no contests for county office on the Democratic primary ballot.

G. O. P. Favors Brooks

Heading the Republican ticket for United States senator is C. Wayland Brooks, incumbent, who was elected two years ago to fill a vacancy caused by the death of the late Senator James Hamilton Lewis.

Senator Brooks' chief opponent seems to be State Treasurer Warren Wright who is making an intensive campaign downstate and over the radio. The third candidate is William J. Baker who is regarded in this area as having little chance in the balloting next Tuesday.

Senator Brooks' record is such that he has received widespread endorsement throughout the state and he should have little difficulty in winning the nomination.

On the Democratic side Paul H. Douglas, Raymond S. McKeough and Sarsfield Daly are the entrants with McKeough getting the nod from the Lake county Democratic Central committee.

Stratton for Treasurer

William G. Stratton, son of the late William J. Stratton is favored to win the state treasurership nomination over Charles P. MacAuley and Harold T. Halfpenny, while 4 candidates vie for the Democratic nomination. They are W. D. Forsyth; Edward J. Barrett; Edward J. Callahan and John H. Condon. Forsyth is favored by Lake county Democrats.

For state superintendent of public instruction Vernon L. Nickell is receiving support by the Lake county Republican organization. He has three opponents—Michael L. Cleary, Wiley B. Garvin and W. C. Handlin, while the Democrats have but a single entry, John A. Wieland, incumbent in that office.

A quartet of candidates for congressman-at-large are entered on both the Republican and Democratic ballots. The G. O. P. candidates are Charles R. Vincent, who has the blessing of the Chicago Tribune; Stephen A. Day, gratified with having a large Townsend following; Deison B. Hull, son of the late Congressman Marion D. Hull; and Dr. Bert Koen. The two best named seem to care for better following in this country.

The Democratic entrants are Frank J. McDonald, Resijan Adamowski, Thomas J. Cullerton and G. R. Malone. Adamowski has the support of Lake county Democrats and has the best chance to win, it is believed.

Cong. Paddock Favored

Congressman George A. Paddock of the 14th district is favored by Lake county Republicans to win over former Congressman Ralph R. Church, who quit his post two years ago to make an unsuccessful campaign for the senate. While Church is making an intensive personal campaign, Paddock's friends are active throughout the district and are spreading the influence of scores of organized groups.

BOXING, TRACK AND BASEBALL ARE ON H.S. SPRING SPORTS LIST

(By Martha Winch)

Muscles plus should appear on Sequoit braves, for Coach C. A. Wolfhanger is putting the lads through some tough training in preparation for their program of spring sports—boxing, track, and baseball.

Boxing will have itsights on April 14 and 15, when A. T. H. S. heroes in the ring will do or die for old Sequoia, no doubt to the cheers of many a habitual Sequoit fight fan and of many who witness Sequoit spirit in gloves for the first time this year.

Thirty-four boys will take part in the boxing bouts during the two evenings.

There will be eight bouts Tuesday evening, the 14th, and 9 bouts on Wednesday evening.

Boxing Starts April 16

On the baseball diamond the braves are striving hard to get into the groove. Antioch's first game will be April 16, when Northbrook comes here and, it is hoped, receives a trouncing. The chief fly in Antioch's ointment is that the boys seem not to be in awfully good training and that a really outstanding pitcher is just so much wishful thinking. However, the braves are out there trying and with so much determination, not to mention a not-had-at-all team, Antioch can be more than hopeful about the April 16 game.

Fifty-five embryo Cunninghams turned out for track this spring, and have done their best in the way of burning up the track and the local roads. Training has been hampered, however, by the inclement weather and the alterations being made in the gym. On April 17 A. T. H. S. will enter the Triangular meet, and on April 25 the Palatine relays.

Caps and Gowns for Senior Class Planned

Senior caps and gowns this year will be more than beautiful—both boys and girls will wear gray with cardinal tassels, thus carrying out the school color theme.

Seniors also have ordered their personal cards and commencement invitations, which are expected to arrive in the near future.

Band Awards Presented to 16 at Assembly Meeting

(By Rosalie Sibley)

Sixteen members of the Antioch Township High School band received awards for outstanding band work in the assembly Friday morning.

Hans Von Holwedge, director, presented awards to Jim Jones, Ed Jones, Leonard Roblin, Bill Petty, Billy White, Tod Maplethorpe, Bud Maplethorpe, Johnny Myers, Joe Nader, Ella Faye, Dean Weber, Mabel Lou Hunter, Grace King, Sammey Klass, Alan Latham, and Bill Dow.

Mary Kay Lynn, Gordon Good, members of the class of 1941; and Dolores Re Cupido, a visitor from Trinity High School in River Forest, entertained the students with songs.

Miss Lynn is a freshman at Carroll College and Mr. Good is a freshman at Northwestern University. Both students spent Easter vacation at the homes of their parents.

"Visiting Day" and "Gym Exhibit" to Be Combined

(By Rose Marie Zellhofer)

The "Gym Exhibit," under the direction of Helen Mae Olson and C. A. Wolfhanger, instructors of physical education classes, will be held April 27, at the high school gymnasium.

The highlights of the program include folk dancing, marching, and tumbling by all girls and boys enrolled in gymnasium classes.

"Visiting day and the exhibition will be combined to save wear and tear on tires," announced E. E. Edwards, principal.

Tickets for the evening performance will be 15¢ plus 2¢ tax for children and 25¢ plus 3¢ tax for adults.

Tuberculosis X-Rays of Students Prove Reassuring

(By Rose Marie Zellhofer)

The report received from Miss Orpha White, executive secretary of the Lake County Tuberculosis Association, concerning the tuberculosis X-Rays of positive cases, showed that there were no active cases of tuberculosis among students and faculty of the high school.

March 9 the students took the shots for the tuberculosis test at Antioch Township High School, and March 19 all positive reactors went to Waukegan to be X-rayed.

New Floor and Ventilator Help Make Library Popular

(By Rosalie Sibley)

The library of the Antioch Township High School has become very popular. The reason for this is that C. E. Rorsgård and company have put in a colorful new floor and a new ventilation system.

All of last week library fans were forced to sit in the study hall, but now they are back and admiring the new orange and brown checked linoleum floor.

Get Your New License

With less than a month to go, some 2,000,000 Illinois motorists have yet to apply for renewal of their driver's licenses.

Chief Clerk John Nash of the state auto division stresses the point that failure to apply for renewal before May 1 makes it necessary for motorists to UNDERGO AN EXAMINATION before a new license will be issued.

Driving without a license places a motorist in a difficult position if stopped by a traffic officer. Especially in these times when tire, auto, and gasoline conservation are major topics, it is likely to be even more costly than embarrassing.

Procrastination can cost many times the 50 cents fee for renewal. DO IT NOW.

paid out of state funds upon his retirement.

However, Judge Decker seems not greatly perturbed over the campaign statements of Mr. Mason, and he confidently believes he will be victorious at the polls next Tuesday.

Siver Makes Good Campaign

Counting on organization support which first placed him in office, Probate Clerk Allen J. Nelson is also favored with the backing of the "happy court house family" in his campaign for re-nomination. Against this initial advantage, Allen has, to his discredit, the fact that he does not know how to conduct a public office in accordance with the law as was exposed by the News recently in his connection with his dealing with one Sydney S. Moore in 1938, the last year he was treasurer, when he placed several delinquent tax lists for publication in Moore's so-called newspapers that were not qualified as legal organs.

Also offsetting Nelson's bid to continue in office is the splendid and clear campaign being waged by Warren G. (Bud) Siver, who according to scores of reports reaching the News has the north shore precincts, including Waukegan and North Chicago, safely in the bag. It is believed that Siver's long career of unselfish service to his community will have telling effect in next Tuesday's balloting, and that he will be returned a winner over his opponent. The Antioch News recommends Siver for Probate Clerk.

Atkinson Wins

Groomed for the office of sheriff for a period of several years, Walter L. Atkinson, chief deputy in that office, is making what appears to be a successful campaign. Atkinson's campaign advertising has been conservative and non-committal.

Atkinson's chief opponent most probably is Lester T. Tiffany, former sheriff of Lake county, who is reported to be making an intensive campaign in the north shore area. Other aspirants are Napoleon J. Meunier of Waukegan and North Chicago, safely in the bag. It is believed that Siver's long career of unselfish service to his community will have telling effect in next Tuesday's balloting, and that he will be returned a winner over his opponent. The Antioch News recommends Siver for Probate Clerk.

Democrats Unopposed

The county Democratic slate is unopposed. The candidates are:

For county judge, Philip W. Yager; county clerk, Ivan R. Harlow; probate judge, Robert P. Sullivan; probate clerk, Charles Cernak, Jr.; county treasurer, Anton Macrowski; sheriff (no candidate filed); county supt. of schools, Henry C. Eads.

Candidates for precinct committeemen in the township are: Antioch 1, Paul Chase; Antioch 2, Chas. Cernak, Jr.; Antioch 3, Henry Jackson.

New Testament Lacks Muscle

The Old Testament is full of muscle, but the New Testament mentions it only once.

Atkinson will win over his three opponents for the G. O. P. nomination.

Jay B. Morse, county clerk, is without opposition for the Republican nomination, as is also William C. Petty, county superintendent of schools. Gustav H. Fredbeck, candidate for county treasurer, likewise has no Republican opponent.

For Precinct Committeemen

Antioch Precincts 1 and 3 present contests for party committeemen, while James Stearns, state deputy fire marshal, is unopposed for re-election in precinct 2. The contestants in Antioch 1 are Jack Flanagan, highway patrolman, and Louis Pregenzer of Grass Lake. Art Gardiner, incumbent, and Al Friedle are the candidates in precinct 3.

Democrats Unopposed

The county Democratic slate is unopposed. The candidates are:

An Open Letter to the Republican Voters of Lake County

April 9, 1942

Fellow Republicans:

In seeking the nomination for Probate Judge I take this means of presenting to you some of the issues. I have refrained from asking for the endorsement of any political club or faction. For it is in the spirit of the law that judges should avoid the impression of being influenced, and that the people should freely exercise their judgment.

The Democrats have charged us time and again with practicing favoritism, nepotism, and machine politics. In the last campaign the Democratic nominee for Probate Judge made specific charges against the incumbent judge, who is now seeking a sixth term, of showing favoritism to members of his own law firm. I believe that these are matters that should be settled in the Republican primary and should be remedied before the Democrats remedy them for us.

Many times the Committee on Professional Ethics of the American Bar Association, in constraining canons of ethics, have condemned a judge practicing in his own court either by himself or members of his firm or associates and particularly members of his own family. Just as a sample of what is taking place in Lake County, I call your attention to Probate Court and the prominent law firm of Decker, Brazell and Decker (see the current edition of the telephone directory).

Martin C. Decker, Probate Judge for twenty years, that is, since the inception of the court, during all of which time he has occupied the bench, has also been senior member of Decker, Brazell and Decker. His salary is $5,000.00 per year, for which he holds court but twice a week. It will be my intention to see that the court is open every day according to the provisions of the statutes, which in part provide that the Probate Court "Shall be always open." The presiding judge tells his political friends that he is too busy and that the court work does not require the court's being open. This I disagree with. FOR IT IS NOT IN KEEPING WITH THE STATUTES. It might be added, in passing, that Judge Decker is now eligible for an annual pension for life of $3,000.00, to be paid out of State funds upon his retirement, and to which he has not himself contributed.

Wilbur B. Brazell, another member of the firm, is an assistant State's Attorney and is paid a salary of $4,800.00 a year. He has continually and ever since his admission to the Bar and his appointment as assistant State's Attorney, practiced in the court of which his associate is judge, which is contrary to all professional ethics.

Bernard M. Decker, son of the Judge and junior partner of the firm, has been from time to time Clerk to one of the Appellate court judges.

The secretary to Judge Decker and

5 ways to make your electric appliances last longer

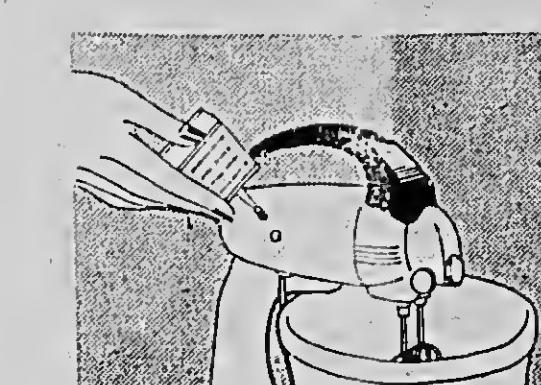

1. Instruction sheets. Practically every electric appliance is accompanied by an instruction sheet or tag, printed by the manufacturer. Don't throw it away—read it carefully. Suggestion: attach a small bulletin board to your kitchen wall, and pin up all instruction sheets on it.

2. Cleaning. Electric motors wear better if they are kept clean. Wipe dust and grit off the exposed parts of your appliance motors with a soft, dry cloth.

3. Keeping dry. Never allow irons, toasters, space heaters, waffle irons, or other appliances, with heating elements to get wet. They may be damaged by water. Clean with dry cloth.

4. Lubrication. Electric motors should be lubricated every six months. Use six drops of light oil in each oil hole (less for small appliance motors). If motor has grease cups, use light grease, or vaseline thinned with light oil.

Now that all of us are trying to get the most out of the things we own, it is wise to remember that the electric aids in our homes were built to last. If we don't mistreat them, if we give them a reasonable amount of care, they will respond by continuing to perform their time-saving tasks through the uncertain period ahead.

Here are five simple ways to make electric appliances last longer. Tear this out of your paper—let the whole family study it—save it for reference. Faithfully carry out these five suggestions in your home, and be confident that you are adding months and years to the lives of your electric servants.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

Merchant Vessel Losses in Atlantic Cause Shortage of Shipping Crews; India Dissatisfied With Cripps' Plan; Observers Ponder New Jap Strategy

(EDITORIAL NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

BATAAN: Defense Vigorous

Most serious attack against General Wainwright's Bataan defense had been launched in the form of a land attack ordered by General Yamashita, whose men had remained quiescent altogether too long to satisfy Tokyo, who soon might have ordered another hara kiri to be carried out.

But the Japs found that the men who had served MacArthur so well were the same ones working under General Wainwright, who proceeded to make a quick shift in his front, to get reinforcements to the beleaguered spot and to meet the Japs with the bayonet.

So vigorous was the hand-to-hand fighting that Japanese dead had littered the battlefield, but the American line had held firm, and was not reported pierced at any point.

Wainwright had admitted to the loss of a few advance positions, that was all.

WAR AT SEA: Whittling Away

The German U-boats, perhaps with some Italians working with them, were the only sea force of the Axis which was causing any lasting concern to the Allies, as the Japanese fleet was rapidly and constantly being whittled down in American size, while our fleet was growing larger by about two warships daily. Best news was the navy's announcement that a total of 28 Axis submarines have been sunk by U.S. military and naval forces up to April 1.

The Japanese air fleets were suffering losses of five to one. Pearl Harbor was already twice avenged in ship and plane losses, and the general outlook of the battle against the Nipponese was more favorable looking as time went on despite the map-showing of conquered territories.

The U-boats were continuing their ratio of sinkings along the Atlantic coast for a wide area, but some hopes had been expressed that the loss of the port of Saint Nazaire might be a costly blow to the Nazis, and that the arrest of a spy ring in Brazil might make it more difficult for the U-boat skippers to find targets.

The sinkings by U-boats still was not exceeding our commissioning of new merchant vessels, but it was making it constantly more difficult to get skippers and crews. Congress had before it a bill to award sailors hero medals for bravery at sea in torpedoes of the same type as those awarded to navy heroes.

While many seamen were brave enough in newspaper interviews, it was getting increasingly hard to man ships with survivors of torpedoes, and the shortage created by those who had died at sea had to be filled by new trainees, for the most part.

It was one of the worst war bottlenecks, and the army and navy were combining in a coastal patrol to which small boats were to be added in an effort to sweep the subs out of America's shore lanes.

One plan brought forward was to haul oil and sugar up the East coast by the inland waterway, in boats of 80 to 300 tons, and in shallow-draft barges.

This traffic could be carried out safely and profitably, surveys had shown.

LABOR:

Both the American Federation of Labor and the C.I.O. had sent messages to General MacArthur in complete support of his command there, and this was held in most circles to mean general support for the war effort.

In the meantime the senate had backed up the administration's antagonism to tampering with the 40-hour-week law, and it seemed that this effort to take away from labor its chief gain since the last war was doomed to defeat.

JAPANESE: Plans Obscure

The certainty felt by Germany that the Japs were going to move into India with their major offensive instead of Australia gave rise more and more to a feeling that perhaps the landing of substantial reinforcements in the "down under" continent may have given the Japs pause, at least.

It was certain that the Japs were having more success in Burma than they were around Australia, and the view was held that perhaps the Japanese might keep in "token force" north of Australia, and a considerable naval power there, to immobilize the Americans and Aussies.

At the same time, these observers had held, the Japs might turn their attention to India, and profitably by the difficult efforts Britain had to line up the Hindus on their side in the forthcoming battle, sweep in with their military and win their way to the Persian gulf.

Chief drawback to this view was the fact that the Japs were said to have only half a million soldiers in the entire Southwest Pacific, perhaps enough to attempt an invasion of population-scarce Australia, but surely not enough to spread out through a country populated with 300,000,000 people.

Unless the Hindus were more than passively opposed to the British, unless they were willing to welcome the Jap invaders with open arms, it would be a hopeless task to attempt occupation of the whole subcontinent, any more than the Japs had been able to do anything in China with far more troops.

Therefore many took still a third view, that neither Australia nor India was the prime objective of the Japs, but Siberia, to open a new front against the Russians in the first place, and simply to hold and attempt to develop the East Indian resources of oil and rubber, while doing their real fighting back of Manchukuo.

If either of these objectives, however, were carried out, instead of the occupation of Australia, it was pointed out that it would play into the hands of Australians and Americans, whose ultimate objective was an offensive against the Japs—not merely holding their own.

INDIA:

Dissatisfaction

Whether India was finally to accede to Britain's wishes or not it still had been evident that the rank and file of the Indian people had been vastly disappointed with the mission of Sir Stafford Cripps and the message he brought them.

Virtually, they pointed out, it was the same as that offered them back at the beginning of the war, with the sole difference that Britain was committing herself to the giving of India of some form of dominion status, while heretofore Britain had merely said she would "talk it over" after the war.

It wasn't apparently so much that the Hindus wanted their freedom now, but it was that they didn't want to be put into the position of having to fight for their freedom under the direction of the British, and as a vassal state.

The Indian leaders wanted Britain to give them the right to organize, finance and carry out their own defense, with the aid of Britain and the other Allied nations.

To this, Sir Stafford Cripps had indicated he had no power to accede. Gandhi and Nehru both being quoted as saying they hoped for a settlement, and other leaders joining them in this hope.

Back of it all was the Hindu desire to carry out a "passive resistance" to the Japs, figuring on their own enormous numbers and their dark and devout ways of doing things to beat the Japs rather than to attempt the seemingly hopeless task of organizing the country militarily for a battle with planes, tanks and guns.

OFFENSIVE:

Expect Drive In Two Directions

London's "listening posts" on the European continent apparently had been able to confirm that Germany's spring offensive was, as had been thought, to be directed against Russia, with 100 new divisions, many of them from conquered or "annexed" countries.

At the same time the clamor had been renewed in England for a "spring offensive" on the part of Britain that would include a major land offensive as well as the air blitz which already had got under way.

A new front in Europe had been urged right along in many quarters and now Lord Beaverbrook himself had broken with Churchill; at least to that extent; and from Miami, Fla., had joined the ranks of those who believed the time had come for Britain's large land army to break out of the islands and go across to some occupied country and start for Berlin.

Victory in 1942 was the slogan of those who believed the time was ripe to strike ashore as well as in the air, and they pointed out that Russia had 7,000,000 fighting men on the eastern front against Hitler's 4,500,000 even with the 100 new divisions, and that a new front on the west would spell ruin to Adolf.

Even the Bulgars, traditional blood relatives and friends of the Russians, had been forced to contribute 200,000 men to the new German armies, the reports had it.

Italy, instead of sending a million men, as had been demanded by Berlin, had sent half this number, and had tried to get out of it, it had been reported. The Italian losses on the east front last winter had been frightful.

The direction of the probable offensive was seen as two-fold, one major series of drives to be headed toward the Crimea and the territory south of the Donets basin.

The other major objective was to be the far north, the port of Murmansk, through which most of the American and British lease-lend aid had been going.

BURMA:

Air Power Gone

Once again the British, according to their own reports, had found themselves on a fairly major battle-front with no air support at all.

The Japs, the British wired, to New Delhi, "have complete control in the air."

The Chinese, under General Stillwell, an American, and the British and Indian forces had divided the Burmese front between them, and were fighting a brave, though apparently losing battle against combined Japs and Burmese, the latter having gone over to the Japanese soon after the invasion started.

GENERAL STILLWELL

The British, themselves unable to arm the Indians to defend their homeland, had found the Japs in no such difficulty when it came to giving arms to natives willing to join their fighting forces.

Thus the defenders were finding themselves battling, as they did in Malaya, with a force well equipped with native guides and native fighters, in the anomalous position of defending Burma from the Burmese as well as the Japs.

MISCELLANY:

Chungking: Chinese sources said that infected material dropped deliberately from Japanese planes had caused an outbreak of the bubonic plague.

Cairo: Nine persons were killed in a rush for shelter during an air raid, the casualty lists showed. Two thousand ran for a shelter built for 100.

Vichy: The Vichy government, believed by many in the United Nations to be secretly making munitions for the Axis, had requisitioned all hotel and restaurant fixtures containing aluminum or brass.

Washington: It had been considered significant in some quarters that the new Pacific Council of Defense included neither India nor Britain. The report followed statements that the British had wanted returning Aussies to go to India, not to their homeland.

Detroit: The auto industry was divided on the merits of the Reuther plan, brought forward by a labor leader to speed up the conversion of auto plants into factories to make tanks and planes. Some held it foolish, others praised it, and the plan was being debated.

Legion Makes Report on Fund For Service MenAntioch Post Thanks Public for Co-operation, Asks Further Support

(by John Horan, Adjutant)

Like many organizations having past military experience following the "Pearl Harbor incident," the American Legion of Antioch started to work on a program with interest directed to the boys entering the service from Antioch. The first job was to prepare a mailing list in order to find out "who was who" and where they were, with the nearest relative at home.

During this first step the Antioch News conceived the idea of mailing the home paper to the boys and later the Legion fell in line, cooperating with the Antioch News, and other ideas of what the boys of today might want while in active service.

Then the question of money came up with the first offer being made by the Lakes Theatre for the use of the show house for a benefit for the boys in service, followed by Mrs. Phillips of the high school and the students wishing to help and finally Ted Pontol of Ted's Sweet shop on a candy sale with the following report as of today on how the money has been spent:
